"Every year, gifted students from a wide range of backgrounds come to Oregon State University on a path to pursue their aspirations and accomplish goals. Our donors know that giving to OSU athletics is investing in a future that enables talented student-athletes to achieve their potential and transform their lives. It takes us all to help them succeed, so thank you for being a valuable member of Beaver Nation. Your kindness inspires me, and I know that OSU student-athletes will continue to show their grit and press on to make you proud."
